Vice Principal's Message

"Do a little more than you're paid to. Give a little more than you have to. Try a little harder than you want to. Aim a little higher than you think possible, and give a lot of thanks to God for health, family, and friends." – Art Linkletter

Thus we, the Kamil family persevere in shaping any child who comes our way towards excellence through our holistic development approach.

A successful child is not the one who brings in best grades but one who learns the skill of life with some grades. They need to leave our shores full of enthusiasm and empowered enough to show and lead a way to others by being a responsible citizen in years to come.

Parents are the greatest partners in a child's education. Your role in building the Kamil family is crucial. We cherish the overwhelming support that you provide, be it academic or any activity in the field of sports and so on.

Let's continuously persevere to achieve collectively in the name of Kamil by encouraging each other in trying times with this thought:

"Success is not final; failure is not fatal: It is the courage to continue that counts."

Maimul Ali (Mrs)
Vice Principal

PARENTAL INVOLVEMENT

Parental engagement increases active participation, communication, and collaboration between parents, schools, and communities with the goal of ensuring student achievement and success in education.

This is supported by evidence from research over the past few decades, which demonstrate that parental engagement significantly impacts on the academic outcomes and social and emotional wellbeing of a child.

Parents/guardians and the school need to have more regular communication in order to strengthen the relationship between the parents, school and the teachers. This will ensure children are more involved or engaged in school activities.

Teachers spend a good amount of time with children. They are sometimes referred to as a child's "second parent/guardian". In order for teachers to engage in effective learning outcomes, they need to have adequate information about the child's wellbeing.

Every school serves its community and is part and parcel of it. As such, schools have enormous responsibilities towards the wellbeing of the community.

REPORT ON BLUE LIGHT YOUTH LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT CAMP

The following students from our College were selected to be part of Youth Leadership Development Camp: Rose Mary Ranitu, Frank Senimoli and Moavi Raibe. This camp was organized by Ba Policing District and New Zealand Blue Light, a registered charity that works with the police to deliver an extensive range of youth programmes and activities.

The Blue Light Youth Leadership Development Camp was conducted from Sunday the 5th of May to Friday the 10th of May, 2024 at Ba Sangam College. The camp program focused on Leadership Training, Team-Work, Practical and Life-Skills and Self-Confidence. The Commissioner of Police graced this event as the Chief Guest.

Our students networked with other students from the Ba District and enjoyed learning from the experienced coordinators. The College expresses sincere gratitude to the organizers for bringing the world class youth leadership development program to our doorsteps.
